DRAFT BOARD

Name Dr. Paoli Fourth Physician

Daly City-South San Francisco selective service board completed recommendations last Tuesday evening for Dr. Theodore H. Paoli, Colma, as the fourth official draft physician from this area.

As soon as authorization is received from Sacramento, Dr. Paoli will assist Dr. Ivan T. Budaeff, Dr. William C. Lynch and Dr. Edwin I. Bartlett in rushing through examinations of hundreds of draftees from this area.

It is thought that the local board will be required to fill a quota of about 28 men on January 20. Of these, only about nine men are now ready, five of them volunteers. Scores of men have already tentatively been classified by the board as "Class 1-A," but are awaiting their physical tests.

Another change was announced today by the board. Mrs. Effie Ford, 151 Irvington street, will fill the position of assistant clerk, left vacant by the promotion of Mrs. Isabelle Flynn to clerk.

TRAGIC ACCIDENT

Robert Silicani Crushed To Death

Ten hours after his body had been crushed against the rear of a county road truck from which he was unloading warning signs, Robert Silicani, 44 Gambetta, died early Christmas eve at the Junipero Serra hospital.

The 58-year-old Colma road-worker regained consciousness only briefly before his death.

The tragic accident occurred at 7:30 a. m. December 24, as Silicani and other members of the road crew were unloading signs warning traffic of a landslide near the Junipero Serra underpass.

Disregarding warning signs and flares, a car driven by James Monaghan, 19, 517 Noe street, travelling south from San Francisco, crashed into the rear of the parked truck, according to State Highway patrolmen.

The automobile appeared so suddenly that Silicani lacked time to jump and was pinned between the two cars. Also injured were two companions, Pompeo Guida-

Local People To Participate In East-West Game Activities Today

What will the New Year bring to Daly City? What changes—what thrills—what achievements will 1941 mark?

Predictions are hard to make; but it may safely be said that the first day of 1941—today—will mean a lot of glory, a lot of excitement, and a lot of hard work to many Daly City people at the big East-West game in San Francisco's Kezar stadium.

Cheering thousands will applaud the Daly City band as they march and play for the football classic. Twirling her baton in the vanguard will be Miss Bobbie Bruce, champion drum majorette, smart and sparkling in a new black velvet uniform with gold metallic trim and new black boots.

For many weeks now, the forty members of the band have been practicing under the skilled and energetic baton of Director George E. Brenner for their eleventh consecutive appearance at the big game.

In the grandstand will be other familiar faces as eight members from Sea Scout Ship No. 1 and Boy Scout Troop No. 148 help with the day's events.

77th Congress Convenes

Important problems of foreign policy will confront the Seventy-seventh congress when it convenes Friday. The picture above illustrates the strong majority which the Democratic party has in both houses of congress as a result of the November 5 election.

Mrs. Al Parmisano Hurt In Auto Collision

Victim of an automobile collision at Huron and Alemany streets the day after Christmas, Mrs. Al Parmisano is recovering at Mary's Help hospital from severe scalp wounds.

Also injured in the accident was Mrs. Parmisano's nephew, Gene Green, driver of the car in which she was riding. Fourteen stitches were taken in his forehead. The driver of the truck which collided with them received a broken collar-bone, according to reports.

Mrs. Parmisano is the sister-in-law of Police Chief James G. Reardon and makes her home at 263 Irvington street in Daly City. She is the daughter of Pete Benassini, Colma blacksmith, 7244 Mission street.

Improper Parking Causes Accidents

Accidents here over the Christmas holidays were few, according to reports from the Daly City Police department, and most of them could be attributed to improper parking.

"The importance of setting brakes properly and turning the wheel into the curb cannot be overestimated," Chief James G. Reardon said today. "Although

"Flu" Blitzkriegs Daly City Police

Cats and dogs run wild on Daly City streets and crime is rampant as Daly City police stage their own exclusive "flu" epidemic!

So might the headlines read today—that is, if the cats and dogs and gangsters didn't all have the flu themselves.

Police Chief James G. Reardon was put into bed on Friday. His faithful assistant, Officer A. J. Dalton, was stricken the day before Christmas. Another trusty enforcer of law and order, Officer George Hopman is under his wife's care at home. And to make it all complete, Poundmaster Archie Banfield has been in bed for two weeks, fighting a "flu" attack.

The department is attempting to carry on as usual, and hopes to be re-united this week or next.

GROUND GLASS

For Cast Iron Constitutions Only

Tiny flakes of what appeared to be ground glass were discovered in three tins of canned crab purchased from a San Francisco grocery store, Daly City police reported today.

The sharp particles were found by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crane, Colma. The matter was turned over for investigation to San Francisco police and health department.

The health department said that the bits of glass-like substance may have resulted from the crabs being cooled too fast, and that the tiny crystals would cut the intestines if eaten.

All three of the cans were marked with the same lot number, police reported.

Council Discusses Parking Regulations

Additional parking regulations for the top of the hill was the chief topic of discussion at last Monday night's council meeting at the city hall.

—Bringing into the open the serious problem which local merchants face with inadequate parking space for their customers, the council referred the matter to the police committee for immediate study.

Suggested solutions included a 45-minute parking limit for Mission street and the intersecting

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG MEN

In preparing for the regular January CCC enrollment, the office of the State Supervisor of Selection for the Civilian Conservation Corps announces that specialized training will be given to an even greater degree than has been done in the past. Extra funds have been made available and facilities have been set up for intensive training in the following subjects: cooking and baking, short wave radio, telephone-line construction, clerical and accounting work, operation and repair of heavy equipment, carpentry, photography—including making mosaics from aerial photographs and blueprint reading.

Concentration on such training will not only prepare future CCC enrollees for employment in civilian life, but will prepare them for future "key" positions of a non-combatant nature, if and when they are later conscripted into military service. The office of the director, CCC, has already publicly announced that youths in the Civilian Conservation Corps have absolutely the same status in regard to eligibility for conscription as youths engaged in any other lines of work, but the advantages of CCC training will certainly place them in a far better position to secure advantageous placement if and when they are conscripted. Recent records compiled in the Office of the State Supervisor of Selection for California reveal that an average of 400 enrollees per month are leaving CCC for verified employment.

Further information on the Civilian Conservation Corps enrollment in January, and the opportunities available may be secured from Donald J. Wild, CCC Selecting Agent for San Mateo county, at 430 Peninsula avenue, San Mateo, California.

Ice Skaters Seek State Championships

With State championships as their goal, local ice skaters were completing their training this week at Winterland for competitions scheduled in the Eastbay, January 10.

The skaters from San Francisco and suburbs were declared by experts to be well out in front of most contenders in the coming State meet. Daily practice has polished their skill to a high degree, the experts said.

Bidding for the women's senior championship will be attractive Marcella May, 1940 women's junior champion and a veteran of competition and exhibitions.

Others going into the junior and novice divisions will be Margaret Field, Zoe Longfeld, Peggy Egan, Viola Miles, Adele Hay, Barbara and Helen Uhl, Bill Hart, Ed Bodell and Bill Ellison. They are all sponsored by the State and Ski club.

In charge of final training for the skaters is Len Fogassey, newly appointed head instructor at Winterland and one of the country's best known professionals. Skaters trained by Fogassey in St. Louis and Colorado Springs have taken a number of championships and his aid here is well-regarded by skating club officials.

Fogassey said yesterday that the Winterland group of amateur stars will rank along with the best in the country. He pointed out that despite the fact ice skating is comparatively new as a major sport in California, this State now produces national champions and great exhibition stars.

Engineers in White

To conform with the color scheme of one streamlined train, the engineer and his assistant are dressed in white instead of in the usual blue overalls.

Figure Skater

Twenty-year-old Eugene Turner, figure-skating champion of the U. S., will compete again for the crown at the annual National Skating Championship tournament to be held in Boston, January 30 to February 1. Turner is also the undefeated Pacific coast senior figure-skating champion.

Notable Birthdays

Only three days separate the birthdays of two United States senators. Saturday Senator Carter Glass will celebrate his eighty-third birthday, and Senator Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota will celebrate his sixtieth birthday next Wednesday.

Canadian Sport Fishing

Remarkable progress in the development and extension of sport fishing areas in the national parks of Canada is reported by the department of mines and resources, Ottawa, which administers Canada's system of national parks. As a result of biological surveys and subsequent stocking operations in the various lakes and streams, particularly waters once barren of fish, visiting anglers may now enjoy good fishing in many waters where previously there was little or no fishing available. One of the outstanding achievements has been the successful introduction of the speckled trout from its native haunts in eastern Canada into many of the clear, cold waters of the national parks in the Rockies.

American Decoration

American visitors to the ex-Kaiser's palace at Potsdam are not only reminded by the guide that an American President once dined there, but are shown the famous Shell room whose walls and ceiling are studded with semi-precious stones, and an agate-looking slab which he describes as, "petrified wood from your own country, from a petrified forest in Arizona."

Do Not Open Until 2039

For opening 100 years hence, a package of tea has been put away in a safe place by the Empire Tea Market expansion bureau of London celebrating the centenary of the first tea produced in the British empire. The parchment-wrapped leaves were enclosed in aluminum foil to prevent oxidation and loss of taste, and the whole package placed in a lead case.

Garibaldi Tops 9:30 Division

With an average of 174 for the season's 39 games, G. Garibaldi of the Universal Press team topped 9:30 division, Merchants' league, individual bowlers during the first half of the season.

Standings compiled by Secretary Tommy Kilbourne show W. Schmitt of Fisher's Boys is second with 167.

The Universal Press team, which was in second place, had high team average of 782, or 1 pin better than the average for the leading Fisher's quintet. Milo's Butchers stand seventh.

Universal Press also took high game honors with 903, while Fisher's rated only 899.

Western Duck Sickness

Vanez T. Wilson is one hunter who doesn't take his prizes home with him; he sets them free, reveals the American Magazine. Wilson is head of the Bear River Migratory Bird refuge at Brigham, Utah. He scours the marshes for sick ducks, and every year cures thousands of their most deadly disease—western duck sickness. The plague was brought on when irrigation projects took away too much water.

FROM HERE, YOU CARRY THE BALL

It has been announced that more attention than ever will be given to the educational program of the C. C. C. in the coming months.

A young man, out of regular employment, may join the C. C. C. and earn his own way. More than that, he is enabled to prepare himself to handle a more skilled job when he returns from camp.

This is a good way, an American way, of handling one of the problems of unemployment among youth. It is important that young men be given an opportunity such as C. C. C. enrollment; it is more important that they be given an opportunity to learn to carry the ball for themselves.

INVITING DEATH

One of the most certain ways for a person to invite death or commit suicide is to stop his car on the pavement to change a tire or make other repairs. This is especially dangerous at night, when other motorists may not see the stopped car until too late.

To prevent such a tragedy, motorists, when stopping along the highway, should drive completely off the pavement and while working keep an eye on approaching traffic, never working in such a location as to cover the warning lights of the vehicle.

TWO OUT OF FIVE

Pedestrians are still a great problem in modern traffic, as two out of every five persons killed in traffic this year throughout the Nation were pedestrians.

The largest number are killed jaywalking, and therein is a moral for all. Motorists, lookout for pedestrians at all times! Pedestrians, never jaywalk but cross the street only at intersections and under the protection of traffic lights.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Price entertained a number of friends and relatives at a dinner Christmas day. Those enjoying the Prices' hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Woltzen and daughter Shirley, and Harold McVicar, San Francisco; Miss Eleanor Price, Saratoga; Ronald Cameron, Loma Park; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Soule and sons Bob and Donald, Sunnyvale; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lowe, Colma; Private Lloyd Stone, Camp Ord, and Miss Genevieve Price.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lagomarsino and sons George Jr. and Eugene spent Christmas with Mrs. Lagomarsino's mother, Mrs. Helen Lorenz, Daly City.

Mrs. Stella Jensen entertained members of Bethel 26, Order of Job's Daughters, Monday evening, following the singing of Christmas carols at the Shrine and Children's hospitals.

Albert Hollingsworth entered the Southern Pacific hospital, December 24, where he is confined with the flu.

The Colma Parent-Teachers' association will hold a pot luck dinner at 6:30 p. m., January 7, in the Jefferson annex. A meeting will follow the dinner at which time plans for the Northern Conference, which will be held at the Jefferson Union high school, January 13, will be discussed.

CHRISTMAS EVENT

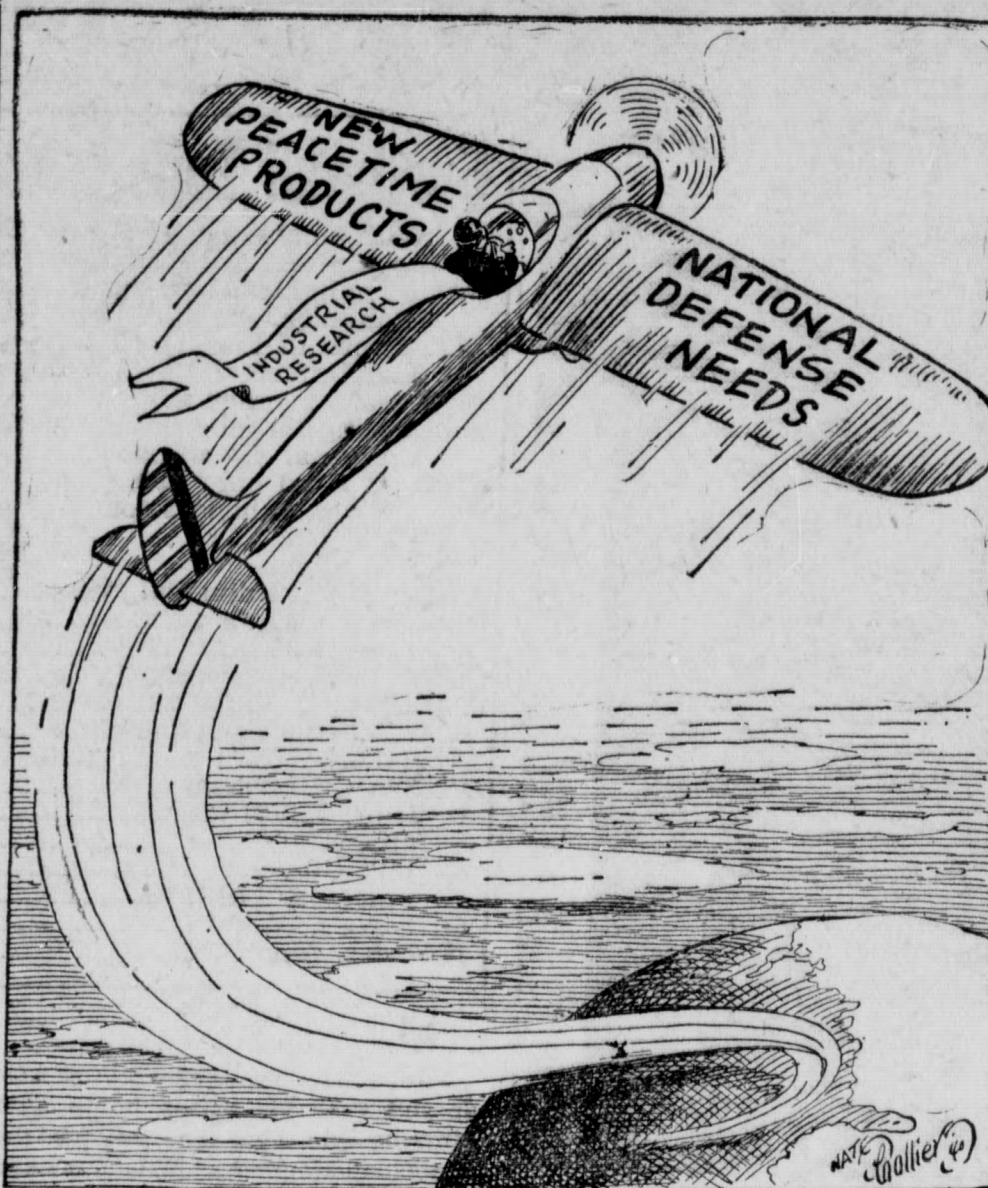

Colma Leaders Stage Dinner Party

One of the merriest Christmas parties held here during the holidays was staged at noon last Monday at Ric's place in Colma.

More than forty Colma business leaders and old-timers gathered for the festivities. An elaborate turkey dinner was served with all the trimmings, as were numerous bottles of old vintage champagne. John J. O'Conner of Belli Motor company served as toastmaster, and called on John Ferrari, John Soldavini, Arthur Ferretti and others.

At the close of the dinner, the group presented a substantial gift to the employees of Ric's place in appreciation for the faithful service of the last year and for their assistance in making the Christmas party such a huge success.

Mrs. Anna Stinson Celebrates Birthday

This was an exciting week-end for Mrs. Anna Stinson, one of Daly City's oldest residents, who celebrated her ninety-fourth birthday on Sunday.

Scores of gifts and greetings and visits from friends made the day a pleasant one. Mrs. Stinson received at open house at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Scott, 54 Parkview avenue.

For the past twelve years Mrs. Stinson has made her home with her daughter in Daly City. Mrs. Scott is well known here as a leading figure in Vista Grande Camp No. 6035, Royal Neighbors of America.

Parr of Palo Alto, president of 1-A Agriculture District association.

U. S. Mutton Consumption

Nearly two-thirds of all the lamb eaten in the United States is consumed north of Washington and east of Pittsburgh, an area which grows less than 5 per cent of the country's sheep.

Recreation Leaders Survey Territory

All leaders of the WPA Recreation program in San Mateo county are now making a complete survey of the territory in which they operate recreation centers, it was announced today.

This survey is being done in conjunction with the present in-service training classes, Bruce H. Boynton, local supervisor, stated.

When the reports are compiled, complete information will be available on the recreation facilities of the community, the type of homes and businesses, the public dance halls and pool rooms, the churches and schools and many other vital factors pertaining to a recreation program.

NEWS FROM JAPAN

Windy Winn Has Gone To Sea

Bert Pulley, proprietor of the Central Creamery, received a letter bearing a postmark from Japan this week. Opening it, he found it was a note from Bernard Winn, former Jefferson Union high school student, who sailed with the Swedish ship, Herma Gor-than, November 8.

Winn is well known in Daly City, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winn, make their home at 67 Miriam street. His letter reads in part as follows:

Greetings and Saturations:

I mean hello from Japan... We just got in and I'm going ashore to mail this. I don't know what city this is...

It was a very long, hard trip and I got very sea sick the first two days out. I didn't like the trip even a little bit at first but when we got almost here I felt better. Now I'm really excited and looking forward to having a good time tonight.

There is very little time to be bored or get lonesome with so

ABOUT TOWN ---

A marriage license was recently issued to Marvin M. Smith, Daly City, and Mary F. Willingham, San Francisco, in Reno, Nevada.

Bill Gfroerer, member of the U. S. Marine Corps band, returned home Friday from Mare Island to spend a week-end leave with his family at 139 Vista Grande avenue. A graduate of Jefferson Union high school and member of the Daly City band, Bill has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Giusto, 110 Moltke, are the proud parents of a son born, December 18, in San Francisco.

Joseph M. Milano, Daly City, and Leone T. Romero, San Francisco, recently applied for a marriage license in San Mateo county.

much work to do. Cigarettes are six cents a pack for all 15 cent brands. I smoked about a pack so far and I bought 2 cartons.

When the ship is unloaded I think we are going over to Shanghai and to the Philippines. I hope we stop at the Hawaiian Islands, but I doubt if we will. I just saw the captain today for the first time since we left San Francisco. I wouldn't swear that he even came over on the same boat...

There's a lot of work to do. I'm getting a bad case of housemaid's knee and dishpan hands. I'm breaking some habits though, such as staying up late at night. I've been to bed much before nine o'clock every night of the trip. Talking too, there's no one here to talk to, that is no one who can understand what I'm saying. They say practice makes perfect: well, when I get back I ought to be either a perfect singer or a perfectly awful singer, because I sing from morning till night.

Well, I think I've written enough for now, so unless a torpedo catches us I'll write again and see you in a month or so.

Yours very truly,
Windy Winn.

"Strike Up The Band" To Open At Daly City Theatre Tomorrow

Strike up the S. R. O. sign! Judy Garland and Mickey Rooney are bringing you a wealth of song and dance talent in the merry new musical, "Strike Up the Band," opening tomorrow (Thursday) on the Daly City screen, with a cast featuring Paul Whiteman and his famous band and a galaxy of young starlets. Busby Berkeley of "Babes in Arms" fame directed.

Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, June Preisser and other clever youngsters who rocked millions with laughter in "Babes in Arms" are at it again in "Strike Up the Band," merry musical of youth coming tomorrow to the Daly City theatre.

This time Mickey and Judy organize a high school swing band and put on a show to raise money for a trip to Paul Whiteman's radio contest for school bands in Chicago. Mickey meets Whiteman (played by the orchestra leader in person), all is set for the trip, then one of their pals needs the money for medical aid to save his life, and they make the sacrifice. But thanks to the town millionaire, they make the trip and win the contest.

Comical episodes include a travesty on old-time melodramas, staged by the youngsters, with hero, heroine and villain, the buzz saw and Judy tied to the railroad track, embellished by such ancient ditties as "Heaven Will Protect a Working Girl" and "The Curse of an Aching Heart." In contrast there are such streamlined song hits of today as "Nobody" and "Our Love Affair." Whiteman and orchestra contribute "When Day Is Done" and "My Wonderful One."

The elaborate musical program of the picture includes, besides the numbers listed above, "Strike Up the Band," "Father, Dear Father," "She's More to Be Pitied Than Censured," "I Just Can't Make My Eyes Behave," "Ta Ra Ra Boom-de-Ay" and "Drummer Boy," the last number played by Mickey Rooney's band, with a drum solo by Rooney.

Companion feature on the new bill will be "The Courageous Dr. Christian," with Jean Hersholt and Dorothy Lovett.

DALY CITY DIGGINS'

"It's All In Fun"
By BOB KEELY

Another year is wearily on its way and we think it appropriate at this time to take a fleeting glimpse at some of the local impressions left by Old Man 1940, so here goes:

LOCAL GLORY: Brought to Daly City by Einar Hanson, golf... Tony Compagno, football... Dante P. Lembi's prize-winning amateurs... Carol Schoning, Barbara Davis and Ralph Capps, aquacade... Evelyn Ciemoli, national typing champ... Bobbie Bruce, champion drum majorette... and the Daly City Merchants' baseball team, which won second place in the S. F. championship league.

LOCAL EVENTS: Daly City theater twice broken into... Colma street work got underway... Daly City Medical-Dental center opened... Franklin D. Roosevelt carried Daly City by more than two to one... county enforces rabies quarantine... community hall project voted down... 3029 register for draft here.

So much for 1940. Let's make 1941 bigger and better for Daly City!

SNAPSHOTS: The Beeson family entertaining the shut-ins at the San Mateo old people's home on Christmas... Lena Gamba, taking ladies' honors for high score at the new bowling alleys... Ric Benedetti without his motorcycle, too much rain... Louise Savelly with a whole handful of East-West game tickets... Al and Frank of Milo's grocery store baling out the stock room... Bill Smeltzer, back on the job at the theater after a siege of the flu.

And that finishes us up for this year, see you next year and in the meantime, Happy New Year!

(Editor's Note: Happy New Year... to Bob Keely, our wandering columnist. If somebody doesn't wring his neck, he should go far in 1941.)

A SHORT STORY --

Mrs. "A" sent her mattress to an out-of-town shop to be renovated at "wholesale" cost. Mrs. "A" had to have her mattress renovated again three months later.

Mrs. "B" traded her chesterfield set for a new one on the budget plan. She'll be making payments for the next three years.

Mrs. "C" phoned for our free pick-up service, had her old mattress made into a new innerspring and had her chesterfield set renovated and re-upholstered. She is living happily hereafter, for the "REST" of her life.

A grand finale to the noble bird is Turkey-Mushroom Soup

by Dorothy Greig

It may be heresy even to hint at such a thing . . . but there are some irrepressible souls who think the best part of the holiday turkey is its final wind-up as turkey soup. Such honest turkey flavor, they claim, almost more than the turkey meat itself had, as though the very essence of flavor had been saved for this, its glorious finish. And I agree, for my own turkey soup is something of which I'm really proud. You see, I add condensed cream of mushroom soup—which gives it an extra fillup of delicate flavor, and a smoothness of texture that is a delight to the palate. Here's how it goes:

Boles of one roast turkey
2 quarts cold water
1 carrot, sliced
1 stalk celery
2 slices onion, medium size

Put all ingredients into a stewing kettle, bring to a boil and simmer, covered, for 2 hours. Strain. Makes 1½ quarts stock.

1½ quarts turkey stock
4 tablespoons rice, uncooked
2 cans condensed cream of mushroom soup

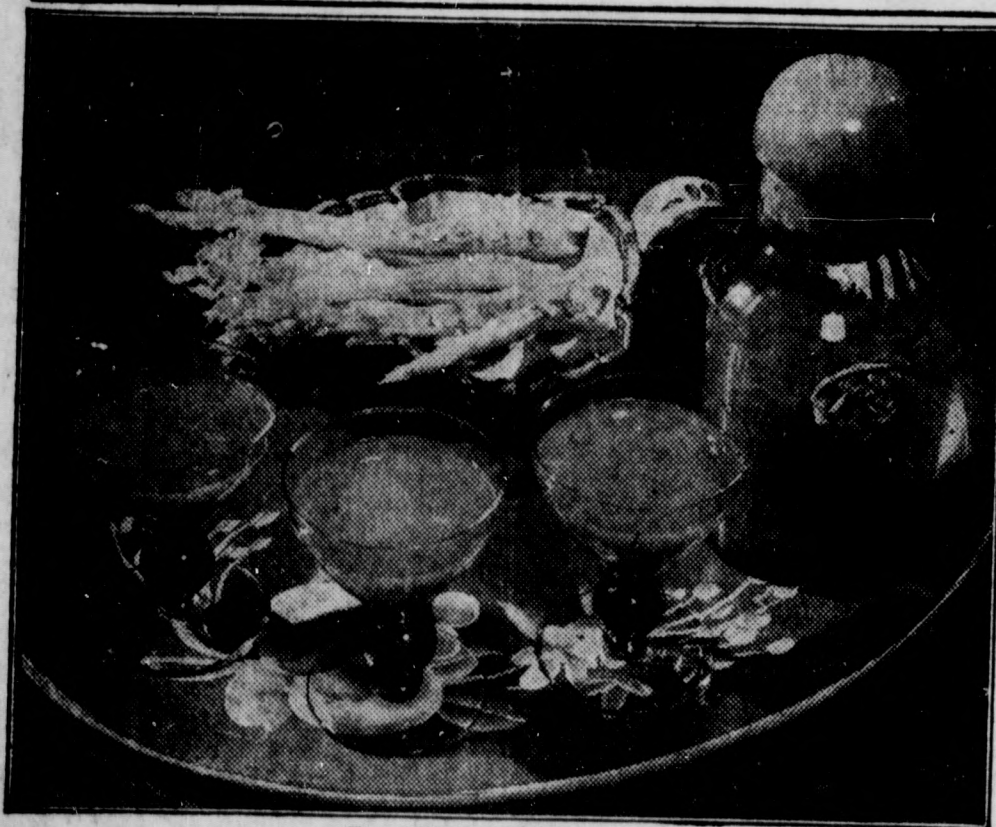

Cook the rice in the turkey stock until soft when pressed between the fingers. Empty the cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan, stir well and add the turkey stock with cooked rice.

For garnish—add 4 tablespoons of chopped tomato (firm part) and 1 teaspoon chopped parsley. Makes 2½ quarts.

Note:

No salt and pepper were used in this recipe because the seasoning in the cream of mushroom soup seemed adequate. However, you may prefer to add about ¼ teaspoon of salt and pinch of pepper.

Try This New Appetite Teaser

By BETTY BARCLAY

The fall menu calendar from sunny Hawaii stars this autumn cocktail which is a blend of tangy canned unsweetened pineapple juice and tomato juice with a dash of lemon juice to accent the flavors.

To add lustre and palate appeal to fall menus keep a generous supply of canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice chilling in your refrigerator. It's delicious served well chilled and straight from the can for "menus 'round the clock."

Don't forget that pineapple juice has a great affinity for other fruit flavors, too, and so serves as an ideal basic ingredient for fruit cocktails and punches of your own devising.

A tangy fruit drink before luncheon or dinner picks up lagging appetites and whets the palate for the meal to follow, so for variety as well as sheer palate appeal serve autumn cocktail.

Autumn Cocktail

2 cups canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice
1 cup tomato juice
Juice of 2 lemons

Mix the juices. Chill, and shake well before serving. Serve in cocktail glasses accompanied by crisp salty crackers or celery stuffed with softened cream and Roquefort cheese. Yield: 6 servings.

Large Wine Cask

The cellar of Heidelberg castle, in Germany, contains a wine cask large enough to furnish refreshment and merriment to an entire army. It holds more than 200,000 bottles of wine.

Record Size Salmon

The largest salmon ever caught in southeastern Alaska weighed 120 pounds. The fish was 53½ inches long and 36½ inches around. It was caught in a net. The previous record salmon weighed 116 pounds.

INVITATION

Make 1941 A Musical Year

"Make a New Year's resolution," Miss Clara Dayton, music director of the WPA Recreation department, urged today.

Miss Dayton, who will conduct another free community sing in the Little Theatre of the high school Tuesday, suggested the following resolution:

"I hereby resolve to make music in the New Year for the sake of good American fellowship and my own personal well-being."

Miss Dayton urges everyone to attend 1941's first community sing, Tuesday. Anyone who plays an instrument is invited to bring it with him. Singing will begin at 8 p. m.

Manteca Girls To Play D. C. Boys

The pins will really fly at the Daly City Bowling Alleys next Sunday when the Manteca Girls meet the Daly City Boys. The visitors are reported to have a top-notch outfit so the local team will have to do its best to win.

The local alleys have become very popular with young and old alike. High scores have been made so far by Tony Milo and Roy Burch, tied at 224 each, and Dick Wilson, 221. For the ladies, Lena Gamba leads with a score of 155, closely followed by Frances Pocket's 152 score and Pat Grasse with 133.

"We'll have an announcement of interest to the ladies very soon," Magnus Hammer and "Gil" Gilroy, proprietors of the establishment, announced today.

Campus Fashions

Santa is back in his snow house at the North Pole resting up for next Christmas; the little gentleman in the top hat and three-cornered pants is busy making plans for a new year; and the smart Campus Miss is planning what she is going to wear to the Senior prom.

You'll want something new, exciting and entirely different. I know just the thing you have been searching for. The "Bare midriff" evening gown is simply stunning. Bare midriffs were first introduced a couple of years back in bathing suits and playsuits, and now are just the thing for dancing.

A beautiful bare-midriff style that I happened to view was a dramatic Javanese print made in flame, flowered Celanese rayon jersey with touches of royal blue in the pattern.

A matching turban made of the same material is bound around your head to show your new pompadour. To finish the dress up with ultra smartness wear a necklace cascade, one that can be wound around your throat three or four times. When you appear at the prom in this stunning outfit I can assure you the results will be wonderful. This dress complements your figure and emphasizes your face and hair.

Some other elegant dresses that will make you the hit of the ball are described below. A sweeping black moire taffeta which rustles when you dance; made with a whirl skirt, smoothly fitted at the waist and worn off the shoulders.

A purplish-blue velveteen will melt your date and be the envy of the girl stag line. Scallops at the neckline are repeated on a very long fitted basque.

One dress you'll probably want to save for the Senior prom is fashioned with tiny rows of Renoir pink sewed on black tulle to make a fitted top and cap sleeves.

The CHOOSE-YOUR-OWN-SALAD idea wins high favor with guests (especially the men!)

Dorothy Greig

THE whole idea back of buffet refreshments is, of course, to give guests a choice of foods and let them help themselves.

And now a new and bright furtherance of that plan is to place, not the mixed whole salad, but the salad makin's themselves on the table and turn the guests loose to put together their own salads. And do they love it! Nibbling Nellie and Gustful George both get exactly what they wish and enjoy it hugely in consequence.

Let guests put together their own salads by offering a choice of ingredients and dressings in separate bowls.

Fill a large center bowl with greens. Then surround the big bowl with individual bowls, each one containing a separate salad ingredient. You can offer three or four bowls or a dozen, depending upon how expansive you feel. You might, for instance, have a line-up something like this:

Buffet Salad

2 cups chicken
2 cups radishes
2 cups cheese
2 cups sliced raw carrots
Stuffed olives
5 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
And, of course, the large bowl of salad greens

Cut the chicken and cheese into strips about 1½ inches long and ¼ inch square. Slice the hard-cooked eggs and arrange in a small bowl. Slice the radishes being careful not to cut through entirely and let stand in ice water so that the slices will separate and spread, accordion fashion. Cut the carrots into long 4-5 inch strips and about ¾ inch square. Use lettuce, chicory, romaine, or watercress in the large salad bowl, or a combination of them.

Offer guests a choice of dressings, too, perhaps a keen French dressing and a thick creamy mayonnaise or Russian dressing.

Here are two dressings that are particularly flavorful. One is a French dressing especially good on a buffet table because it is non-separating. The other dressing has chopped eggs and anchovy paste and is sharp and tangy.

Snappy French Dressing

1 tablespoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons sugar
¾ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 cup oil (olive or salad)
½ cup vinegar
½ can condensed tomato soup

Combine the dry ingredients and mix in the grated onion. Blend in the oil and let stand for 10-15 minutes. Add vinegar and tomato soup. Beat well until the dressing mixture is thick and well blended. Makes approximately 2½ cups of dressing.

This is a non-separating French dressing.

Egg and Anchovy Dressing

1 tablespoon dry mustard
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon anchovy paste
1 cup salad oil
½ cup vinegar
¾ cup condensed tomato soup
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped

Combine dry mustard, sugar, salt and anchovy paste. Then add salad oil, vinegar and tomato soup. Mix well and at the last stir in the hard-cooked egg. Makes 2½ cups dressing.

Synthetic Mercury—

Upsetting laws of chemistry and physics and making a "first" in the history of these sciences Jacob H. Wiens, instructor of radio and chemistry at the San Mateo junior college, and Dr. Luis Alvarez, director of the 36-inch cyclotron at the University of California, have conducted experiments with gold and have obtained synthetic mercury from the gold.

This is the first time that one pure element has been obtained from another, the scientists state.

Tees for Three

At Yonkers, N. Y., a water tower marks the spot where the first golf tee in this country was located. Early niblick fans, however, found the pasture was too hilly for golf and abandoned what might have been America's first golf course after only three holes had been laid out.

Upon the request of L. Bocci and Sons, Colma, an ordinance was introduced re-zoning the corner of School and Bruno streets as a commercial district.

The application of the State Relief administration for a renewal of the contract to use the No. 2 firehouse for another year was read.

An unanimous motion awarded the contract for a year's supply of ethyl gasoline for the city to the low bidder, General Petroleum corporation, at a figure of 10.9 cents per gallon.

Improper Parking Causes Accidents

most of these accidents resulted in slight damage, runaway cars often bring serious consequences."

Within the last few days, three cars have rolled down hills. A Ford V-8 belonging to Ewald A. Busse, parked on Mission near Bepler, ran down backwards, crashing into the front of a B and G tow car. Busse was given a tag for reckless driving.

Charles Witt, Colma, was the owner of a vehicle which ran down Partridge lane and struck a telephone pole in front of 66 Partridge lane.

Stockings for a Queen

Weaving is one of the oldest arts, but knitting was not discovered until about 1400. Some 200 years later, Rev. William Lee of Nottingham, England, invented a knitting machine. He knit a pair of stockings for Queen Elizabeth but she was reported as disappointed because they were coarse. Rev. Lee then perfected a new machine, and knit the queen a pair of silk stockings.

CHRISTMAS IN GARDEN VILLAGE

"Merry Christmas" reads the huge flood-lighted sign this week above the home of Paul A. Wolter jr., builder of Garden Village.
Each year Wolter encourages original and elaborate home decorations in Garden Village during the holiday season. His own home is ample proof of the attractiveness of this plan.

Have you ever seen a post-card measuring four feet by eight feet, wishing you a "Merry Christmas?"

If not, stop by the E. E. Stafford home in Garden Village this week. There you will find the Staffords extending holiday greetings in a "big way" with a most unusual post-card.

Lighted at night, the huge white card is addressed to "Mr. and Mrs. Garden Village," and postmarked Colma. On the "message" side, it reads, "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year" in blue-white letters and is signed, "The Staffords."

New Year's Eve Dance
Open To General Public

Tickets will be available at the door and everyone is invited to attend the San Mateo county sheriff's posse New Year's dance, Tuesday, December 31, in the Bayshore City hall.

The gala party will be an all-night affair, according to Ed Allen, member of the committee in charge. Serpentine and everything that goes with it will be featured at this festive welcoming of the New Year.

Dancing, special music and entertainment will be high-lights of the evening. Other members of the committee include Jack Lawson, Frank Ratto and George Palamondi.

TO SELECT
WINNERS TODAY

Winners will be selected today for the ten most attractive home decorations in Garden Village during the holiday season. From all indications, it's going to be a hard job for the judges.

Gaily-colored lights, trees, bells and candles have all combined to make Garden Village a veritable fairy-land during the past two weeks.

Serving on the committee will be Miss Edna Smith, commercial teacher at Jefferson Union high school; Mrs. Effie Anderson, art instructor; Mayor John J. Fahey and Mrs. Fahey.

Prize winners will be announced in next week's issue of the Daly City Record.

Auctioneer Is Boss

American courts have held that an auctioneer is not compelled to accept the highest bid, according to Collier's. In a Minnesota case, a house was sold to the first bidder for $675 after the second and only other bidder had offered $680. The auctioneer refused to consider such a trifling increase. So the second bidder sued but lost his case on the ground that no contract exists until the offer to purchase is accepted by the auctioneer.
